Support and Monitoring

Newly appointed staff are very welcome to seek any required clarification with a member of the Senior Leadership Team, should the need arise. This is part of the School's informal support system, with the initiative from the newly appointed member of staff. In addition to this, a more formal structure exists:-

- (i) The Headteacher will give the member of staff the induction checklist and agree a date to discuss the completion of the initial induction process. She/He will meet with the member of staff a maximum of twice a term in the first year of appointment. This will be to discuss developments, help to prepare for future events and give support where necessary.
- (ii) The Learning Team Leader will meet formally with the member of staff at least once a month in the first two terms and twice in the third term. She/He will be responsible for monitoring the new colleague's academic work, offering and giving support in classroom related matters, explaining the department handbook and schemes of work, and the school assessment policy.
- (iii) The Leader of Student Support will check regularly that the tutor-time work and other aspects of the tutor role are going well. She/He will be responsible for monitoring the new colleague's pastoral work, offering and giving support with the role of the tutor and explaining pastoral procedure. This is especially important - given the role of the tutor.
- (iv) In the case of newly qualified teachers, a designated mentor will meet regularly with the member of staff and proceed with support as designated by County recommendations. It is important that the Career Entry Profile is collaboratively used. Focus on the use of this document should occur in the first half-term of the appointment. Use of targets for further professional development during the induction year will be vital.

The NQT will be seen teaching twice in the first half term by a member of the SLT. Their Learning Team Leader will also observe them teaching. This will be in the first instance during the first month of the NQT taking up post. NQTs should be observed teaching by the Learning Team Leader once in the first month and then twice a term for the first year or more often if circumstances require.
