All candidates will be entitled, and enabled, to achieve an entry for qualifications from an external awarding body.

3. Exam seasons and timetables

3.1 Exam seasons: GCSE exams are taken in the Summer. Vocational exams for most subjects are on demand but are timetabled for others normally in January.

There will be opportunities for internal examinations during external exam seasons. Mock exams will typically take place in November.

3.2 Timetables

Once confirmed, the Exams Officer will circulate the exam timetables for internal exams and external exams.

4. Entries, entry details and late entries

4.1 Entries

Candidates are selected for their exam entries by the heads of subject.

Candidates, or parents/carers, can request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal. A fee may be charged if the entry is against the advice of the school. The Exams Officer, deputy head and subject leader will agree the action.

6. The Disability Discrimination Act (DDA), special needs and access arrangements

6.1 DDA

The Disability Discrimination Act 2005 extends the application of the DDA to general qualifications. All exam centre staff must ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

6.2 Special needs

A candidate's special needs requirements are determined by the Leader of Inclusion/SENCo

The Leader of Inclusion/SENCo will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam, and the date of that exam. The Leader of Inclusion/SENCo can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates can be granted during the course and in the exam.

6.3 Access arrangements

Identifying candidates who need access arrangements and submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the Leader of Inclusion/SENCo and the Deputy Headteacher with responsibility for examinations.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the Teaching Assistant with responsibility for exams in consultation with the Exams Officer and the Centre Administrator. The Leader of Inclusion/SENCo has oversight of this process.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates will be organised by the Teaching Assistant with responsibility for exams with the Centre Administrator and the Exams Officer. The Leader of Inclusion/SENCo has oversight of this process.

7. Managing invigilators and exam days

Securing the necessary Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the centre administrator.

DBS fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre.

Invigilators are timetabled by the centre administrator and briefed by the Exams Officer.

Site management is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms.

The Exams Officer will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Senior members of centre staff, such as an Assistant Headteacher, approved by the head of centre and who have not had overall responsibility for the subject department and/or preparing the candidates for the examination(s), may be present at the start of the examination(s). When entering an examination room, the senior member of centre staff must identify themselves and their purpose for being there to the senior invigilator and/or exams officer.

In practical exams subject teachers may be on hand in case of any technical difficulties.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Spare papers will be distributed to heads of department at the end of the exam session.

8. Candidates, clash candidates and special consideration

8.1 Candidates

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times.

Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Candidates may leave the exam room for a genuine purpose requiring an immediate return to the exam room, in which case a member of staff must accompany them.

The Exams Officer will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

8.2 Clash candidates

The Exams Officer will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

8.3 Special consideration

Should a candidate be ill before an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be taken ill during the exam itself or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, the Exams Officer, or the exam invigilator, to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within three days of the exam, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor.

The Exams Officer will then complete a special consideration request with the relevant awarding body within seven days of the exam.

10. Appeals against internal assessments

The centre is obliged to publish a separate procedure on this subject, which is available from the exams office.

- appeals can only be made about the marking process not the mark or grade awarded
- candidates may appeal if they feel their controlled assessment has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
- appeals should be made in writing within 2 weeks of the final exam of the series to the head of centre who will decide whether the process used conformed to the necessary requirements
- the head of centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the Exams Officer and recorded for awarding body inspection

11. Results, enquiries about results (EARs) and access to scripts (ATS)

11.1 Results

July 2021 - Examinations

Author: Deputy Headteacher: Provision & Progress

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days either in person at the centre or by post to their home addresses (candidates to provide sae). If absolutely necessary, results may be issued by email direct to candidates.

Arrangements for the school to be open on results days are made by the SLT.

The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the SLT.

11.2 EARs

EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking.

If a result is queried, the Exams Officer, teaching staff and head of centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a re-mark at the centre's expense.

When the centre does not uphold an EAR, a candidate may apply to have an enquiry carried out. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will be charged.

(See also section 5: Exam fees)

12. Certificates

Certificates are presented in person at the Presentation Evening in November or collected and signed for after that date.

Certificates may be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party, provided they have been authorised to do so.

The centre retains unclaimed certificates for three years.

13. Examination appeals procedures

The school is committed to ensuring that whenever its staff assess students' work for external qualification; this is done fairly, consistently and in accordance with the specification for the qualification concerned. Assessments should be conducted by staff who have appropriate knowledge, understanding and skills.

Students' work should be produced and authenticated according to the requirements of the examination board. Where a set of work is divided between staff, consistency should be assured by internal moderation and standardisation. If students believe that this may not have happened in relation to his/her work, he/she may make use of this appeals procedure. Note that appeals may only be made against the process that led to the assessment and not against the mark or grade.

The existence of this procedure is made known to students in the GCSE booklet issued to students.

Appeals should be made as soon as possible, and must be made at least two weeks before the end of the last externally assessed paper in the examinations series.

Appeals should be made in writing to the Exams Officer who will investigate the appeal.

The person conducting the investigation will decide whether the process used for the internal assessment conformed with the requirements of the awarding body and examination code of practice of the QCA. This will be done before the end of the series.

The result of the appeal will be made known in writing to the parties concerned, together with any correspondence with the awarding body, any changes made to the assessment of the piece of work in question and any changes made for the future.

A written record of the appeal will be kept and made available to the awarding body at their request. Should the appeal bring any significant irregularity to light, the awarding body will be informed.

After work has been assessed internally it is moderated by the awarding body to ensure consistency between centres. Such moderation frequently changes the marks awarded for internally assessed work. That is outside the control of the school and is not covered by this procedure.

Details of the appeals procedure for the relevant awarding body are available from the Exams Officer.

14. Internal Exams

Internal examinations will be timetabled by the exams officer in consultation with the subject leaders and Deputy Head Curriculum. They will be run to external exam standards

15. Emergency Evacuation Plan

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/bomb-threats-guidance/procedures-for-handling-bomb-threats> in the case of emergency, such as the fire alarm or a bomb alert, invigilators should follow these procedures. Examinations office staff will attend as soon as possible.

Once established that the alarm has not been rung in error, please:

REMAIN CALM

- Note the time of the interruption.
- Instruct candidates to close their scripts and leave the room in silence and walk out of the fire exits and assemble in the car park at the side of the sports hall. They must remain silent at all times.
- All question papers and scripts must be left in the examination room.
- Collect the attendance register.
- In the sports hall, delegate one invigilator to ensure all students have left the building.
- Once all students have been accounted for, await further instructions. Do not return to the building until authorised to do so by the Examinations Officer.
- All candidates should remain in groups with the invigilator(s). To ensure there is no collusion, candidates should not discuss the examination with each other whilst they are out of the examination room. The Examinations Officer must be notified of the name/candidate number of any student who does not comply with this instruction.

- When candidates are permitted to return to the examination room they should continue with their examination. Invigilators should make a note of the time and duration of the interruption and record it in the log. No notes should be made on examination scripts or attendance registers that an interruption has occurred.
- Candidates should be allowed the full working time prescribed for the examination.

16. Contingency Plan

There is a joint contingency plan for all exam boards published by the Government and it can be found using the link below

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/exam-system-contingency-plan-england-wales-and-northern-ireland/what-schools-and-colleges-should-do-if-exams-or-other-assessments-are-seriously-disrupted>

17. Arrangements for centre assessed grading

Following periods of school closure, there may be a requirement to complete Centre Assessed Grading rather than final examinations in accordance with Ofqual regulations. In these instances, a separate policy will be produced to define arrangements, and therefore those arrangements referenced in this policy may not be followed.

School Commitment

Kingsmead School is committed to ensuring that whenever its staff assesses students' work for external qualification; this is done fairly, consistently and in accordance with the specification for the qualification concerned. Assessments should be conducted by staff who have appropriate knowledge, understanding and skills, and who have been trained in this activity.

Students' work should be produced and authenticated according the requirements of the examinations board. Where a set of work is divided between staff, consistency should be assured by internal moderation and standardisation.

If a student feels that this may not have happened in relation to his/her work, he/she may make use of this appeals procedure.

The existence of this procedure is made known to students in subject lessons where controlled assessment is a component of the subject award. A statement will also appear on the Summer examination timetable issued by the end of February. The statement will be worded as follows; If you have concerns about the procedures used in assessing your internally marked work for public examinations (e.g. controlled assessment, portfolio/projects) you should see the Exams Officer or the Deputy Head teacher who is line manager for exams as soon as possible.

Internal Procedure

This procedure is available from the Exams Officer.

1. Appeals will be investigated by the Deputy Head teacher / Exams Officer. If the Exams Officer was directly involved in the assessment in question, the Headteacher will appoint another member of staff of similar or greater seniority to conduct the investigation.
2. Appeals should be made as soon as possible, in writing, stating the details of the complaint and the reason for the appeal (see Appendix 1), to the nominated person, who will investigate the appeal. The appeal letter should be signed by both the candidate and parent/guardian. Appeals must be made at least two weeks before the end of the last externally assessed paper in the examinations series.
3. The Deputy Headteacher responsible for Examinations or appointed member of staff will decide whether the process used for the internal assessment conformed with the requirements of the awarding body and the examinations code of practice of the QCA. This will be done before the end of the examination series.
4. The subject teacher(s) concerned with making the assessment will be given the opportunity to see the candidate's appeal and respond to the appeal in writing, a copy of this response will be sent to the candidate.

5. The candidate must state in writing if they are satisfied/not satisfied with the written response they have received from the teacher.
6. If the candidate is not satisfied, the candidate will be invited (with reasonable notice) to a personal hearing, this invitation will be in writing and will include a copy of all relevant documentation (e.g. given marks, assessments made). The candidate must be accompanied by a (single) parent/guardian. The teacher(s) and candidate will be given the opportunity to hear each other's submission to the panel at the hearing. The attending members of staff involved have the option to have representation by their professional association.
7. The panel will comprise of a senior member of staff and a governor, both of whom will have had no dealings with the case prior to the hearing.
8. The candidate will be informed in writing of the outcome of the appeal, including any correspondence with the board, any changes made to the assessment of the work, and any changes made to improve matters in future. This will be received by the candidate within two weeks of the hearing.
9. The outcome of the appeal will be made known to the Headteacher, and will be logged as a complaint. The school will maintain a written record of all appeals. This record will include the outcome of the appeal and reasons for that outcome. This record will be made available to the Awarding Body at their request. Should the appeal bring any significant irregularity to light, the Awarding Body will be informed.
10. The school will inform the relevant Awarding Body if there is any change to the internal assessment mark as a result of the appeal.

Moderation

After work has been assessed internally it is moderated by the Awarding Body (Examinations Board) to ensure consistency between Schools. Such moderation frequently changes the marks awarded for internally assessed work. That is outside the control of and is not covered by this procedure. If you have concerns about it, please ask Exams Officer for a copy of the appeals procedure of the relevant Examinations Board. [*please note, at the time of writing, the appeals procedure for 2020 academic year has not been determined by the Department for Education and Ofqual. This procedure is expected to be substantially different from that of previous years. For more information please email \[contact@kingsmead-school.com\]\(mailto:contact@kingsmead-school.com\)](#)

WORD PROCESSOR POLICY

A word processor cannot be granted to a candidate because they prefer to type rather than write or can work faster on a keyboard, or because they use a laptop at home.

The use of a word processor MUST reflect the candidate's normal way of working within the centre and be appropriate to the candidate's needs.

This list helps to identify candidates who would benefit from the use of a word processor, although it is not exhaustive;

- A learning difficulty which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on the ability to write legibly
- A medical condition
- A physical disability
- A sensory impairment
- Planning and organisation problems when writing by hand
- Poor handwriting

A word processor will be provided with the spelling and grammar checkers and predictive text facility switched off. WordPad is the software installed on word processors used for examination purposes. Word processors will be in good working order at the time of the examination.

Candidates may use their answer booklet in addition to the word processor if they wish to do so.

Only authorised memory sticks provided by the centre may be used, if appropriate.

Candidates must save their work at regular intervals.

Printing must be carried out after the examination is over and the candidate must be present to verify that the work printed is their own.

Candidates must ensure that their centre number, candidate number and unit code are typed or handwritten on each page.

A JCQ word processor cover sheet must be completed and attached to the candidates' script.
