Kingsmead School is in Wiveliscombe, Somerset, and is a successful, oversubscribed 11-16 school. Our students are enthusiastic, committed, motivated to learn and achieve very well. They participate in a wide range of activities outside of the classroom, including sport, music, drama and Duke of Edinburgh.

We are looking to appoint an outstanding Deputy Headteacher to start at Easter. For a full list of responsibilities, please refer to the Application Pack. This is an excellent opportunity to progress your career within a highly supportive, professional and forward-thinking school that firmly believes in supporting students to be the very best that they can be.

We would welcome requests from potential candidates, prior to applying, to come into the school for a tour and to discuss the responsibilities attached to the role. To book a tour and informal discussion about the role, please contact recruitment@kingsmead-school.com

Wiveliscombe nestles in the Vale of Taunton Deane between Exmoor, the Quantocks and the Blackdown Hills. We are 12 miles from the county town of Taunton and just 20 minutes from the M5 which makes both Bristol and Exeter close at hand.

Further details about Kingsmead School and an application pack are available from our website under: "Joining Us" – "Staff Vacancies".

We look forward to receiving your application.
